THE ANCIENT BO TREE.

Oldest Living Thing of Which Man Has Kept Record.

This bo tree (the Ficus religiosa) is probably the oldest living thing in the world of which record has been kept by man and, with the possible exception of the sequoia, the oldest of living trees. It was brought from India by the Princess Sanghamitta and was planted by King Dewanapiya Tissa in 288 B. C. It is therefore 2,195 years old. The preservation of this tree has been an object of reverent solicitude to successive dynasties, and either through superstitious reverence or because of its worthlessness to a plunderer it has been spared amid all the havoc of repeated invasions. As recently as 1739 A. D. it was endowed with lands by Raja Sinah, a Kandian chief.

The bo tree's age and identity are matters of absolutely faithful record, and when one recalls that in the rigorous climate of northern Germany, in Hildesheim, there grows a rosebush which is a thousand years old it does not seem so remarkable that in the balmy climate of Ceylon this tree should have lived twice as long. It is gnarled and unsymmetrical, because many of its branches have been cut off and sent to distant temples. This bo tree is a branch of the tree under which Guatama Buddha sat when he attained Nirvana, and Buddhists say the passion through which he passed communicated itself to the tree and caused all the leaves to tremble. Each of the millions of pilgrims who have toiled along the sacred way which leads to this shrine has hoped to bear away with him a leaf from the sacred tree, and happy is he at whose feet one falls.

The leaves hang on a slender stem and are easily stirred by the slightest breeze, so each petitioner is rewarded for his pilgrimage by feeling that the tree responds to the fervor of his soul, but few take home a leaf. Many bring offerings to the tree, and on a number of the lower leaves are sheets of gold placed there by jewelers and other wealthy worshippers.—Rosalie S. Morton in Century.

Wall Paper and the Sick.

"I am glad the walls of my bedroom are not papered," said the invalid. "Nobody but the sick knows how nerve racking it is to lie all day long looking at the wall paper that doesn't match. It matches well enough, you understand, for people who are well. They never would notice where the flowers failed to hitch or the stems met too far down the fraction of an inch, but we notice it and worry over it and cry sometimes because it worries us so. My wall is painted light blue, the color of the skies. It doesn't hurt my eyes at all to look at it. It doesn't worry me. When the curtain is down it is the very softest kind of blue, so gratifying that I fall asleep looking at it. Oh, yes; the only thing to do with the walls of the sickroom is to paint them light blue."—New York Press.

The Age of Fishes.

The normal length of life of our common small minnows rarely exceeds four or five years and may be much shorter, but there are few satisfactory observations on this point. No general rule can be laid down regarding the age of fishes or the relation between age and size. It is known that the salmon of the Pacific coast, which enter the rivers in such immense shoals, live to be four or five years old and then invariably die after once laying their eggs. One Japanese fish died when one year old. On the west coast of Europe there occurs a small fish which is like an annual plant—that is, all the individuals die each year and only the eggs—i. e., the seed—remain to produce the next season's crop.—St. Nicholas.

Couldn't Go the Last.

An Irishman had just come over and, being hungry, went to one of the swiftest hotels in New York. When the waiter appeared to take his order he said, "Bring me the best you have."

After having gone a few minutes the waiter returned with a glass of water, a bunch of celery and a lobster. When about time to check him up the waiter returned to the customer, asking him why he had not eaten his meal.

"Well," replied the man, "I drank the water and smelled the bouquet, but I'll be damned if I could go the bag."

I. J. ALEXANDER, of Campton, is this week announced through the columns of our paper for the nomination for Jailer of Wolfe County, and submits his claims to the action of the Democratic party, with which he has been identified ever since he became a voter, and even before. He has never before asked for or held office, nor has any of his family, although he has always voted the ticket and worked for the nominees. He is an upright, law-abiding citizen, thoroughly identified with the interests of Wolfe county, and if elected will undoubtedly make a safe and sure supervisor of the hostile containing the unfortunates under his charge. He is also a humane and cleanly man, and will see that the inmates of the castle of doom are well fed and kept cleanly. He is a man, in short, who is qualified to fulfill every duty incumbent upon the office, and we feel safe in saying no prisoner will be shrowed enough to slip from his custody. He is a brother of S. C. (Coon) Alexander, of Daysboro, and perhaps as well known. Anyhow we ask all Democrats to give him a fair deal, and feel sure he will in no wise disappoint them.

W. C. SMITH, chairman of the Democratic county campaign committee, was in town Tuesday to have some bills printed announcing the speaking by J. Smith Hays and Col. Charley Metcalf at Campton Saturday night. We asked as to the political outlook, when he informed us that everything was as lovely as a sunny May morning. Mr. Smith impresses us as the right man in the right place, and from other sources we learn that under his management the county is in better condition to bring victory to Democracy than ever before. Every precinct is equipped with a squad of energetic workers, and all being enthusiastic Democrats victory is assured our ticket.

Campaign Contributions.
In accordance with the request from the Democratic Campaign management, THE HERALD invites its readers to make contributions to the national campaign fund. Contributors may make their donations in cash or by check. Checks should be made payable to THE HERALD and endorsed for "Democratic campaign fund." A list of all contributors will be carefully kept and published at intervals, and each person contributing one dollar will receive a nice button on which is a picture of Wm. Jennings Bryan surrounded by the words "I gave my dollar, did you?" The funds will be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee according to the plan for receiving newspaper contributions.

Conscience Fund Aided Again.
After having drawn for years a pension to which he was not entitled, an unnamed veteran of the Civil War has just returned to the United States government the sum of $1,172 to be added to the ever-growing "conscience fund." Commissioner of Pensions Vespasian Warner related this remarkable case of stricken conscience to President Roosevelt, but refused to divulge the name, not even disclosing it to the United States Treasurer in whose hands the money has been placed. Upon receipt of the pensioner's certificate, accompanied by two $500 coupon bonds of the United States, a draft for $172, and an explanatory letter stating that he writer had long been drawing a pension for which he had no equitable claim and wished to make full restitution, the commissioner examined the records in the case. The record was all right, so a special examiner was sent out on the theory that the soldier might be mentally irresponsible. The man was found to be in excellent health and sound mind. Do you want a handsome partout picture of the Hazel Green Academy and other buildings connected with it? If so, come to THE HERALD office and see what we have in that line.

Bloody Battle Averted.

Jackson.—Following the shooting of John Combs on Jett's creek by App Murrell a general fight was narrowly averted between rival factions near the Owsley and Breathitt counties lines by the coolness and ready command of the men of Sheriff Crawford.

After Combs was desperately wounded by Murrell in their fight, Mr. Crawford was informed of the affair. He left his home, above Athol, accompanied only by John McIntosh. These two men followed Murrell into Owsley county and found him surrounded by more than a dozen friends well armed with Winchesters.

Murrell was induced to return with the officers on condition that he be accompanied by his armed following.

The party was well supplied with whisky, and after a while began to quarrel among themselves. Just as the Breathitt county line was reached Judge Murrell became enraged at Beat Garrard, presented his revolver in Garrard's face and was about to pull the trigger when his effort was arrested by Sheriff Crawford.

The Sheriff finally succeeded in delivering his prisoner to Magistrate I. C. Terry. The examining trial resulted in Murrell being granted bond for his appearance before the Breathitt county grand jury.

Dr. C. H. Hurst, who was called to see the wounded man, reports that, though badly shot through the upper part of the left lung, he has a bare chance for recovery.

In nearly every judicial district in the state, except ours, the office of Circuit Judge is held by one of the best lawyers in the district. Whether we are to remain an exception to the rule will be determined by the voters at this election. The Republicans have put up a man for this high office who has practically had no civil practice, as the records of Magoffin county will show, and a little over 24 years of criminal practice as commonwealth's attorney, while the Democrats have nominated a man who has been considered one of the leading lawyers and practitioners in this district for more than a generation. The question as to which one of the two will make the best judge is not debatable.

We believe the day of yellow dog politics is over in this country and that the salvation of the country rests with the independent voter. The time has come and now is when the man and not the party should be voted for.

We have always been a Democrat, but it is needless for us to assert that we have advocated and worked for the election of Republican nominees whenever we thought it to be to the best interests of the public service and that we were right we believe passing events have proven.

We believe that it is just as necessary to the welfare of the people of Breathitt county to have White and Stamper elected this year as it was to have some of the so called Democratic nominees defeated in former years. We spent our time and money to help Republicans then. We believe they ought to come over and help us in the judicial race. We do not ask any Republican to vote against Langley, but on the contrary we believe it is his duty to support him, as he has made a good member, and that office is a political office. But the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney are not political offices. The Republicans have nominated inexperienced men and the Democrats able and learned men in the law for these offices.

What shall the voter do? Will he vote for his interests or will he shut his eyes and be a yellow dog politician?

We do not believe there is a Republican in this district who, if he votes against White and Stamper, will not feel, deep down in his heart, that he voted against the best interests of himself, his family and his country.—Breathitt County News.

The place is well watered and fenced, in a good neighborhood, has a good pair of stock scales, and is within one mile of a good school house on each of two sides, with telephone in the house. Indeed everything is convenient. Any one wishing a good home should call and get my price before buying.

AMERICA'S GREATEST WEEKLY.

TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States.

CIRCULATION - 200,000.

Popular in Every State.

In many respects the TOLEDO BLADE is the most remarkable weekly newspaper published in the United States. It is the only newspaper especially edited for national circulation. It has had the largest circulation for more years than any newspaper printed in America. Furthermore, it is the cheapest newspaper in the world, as will be explained to any person who will write us for terms. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 200,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the United States. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year. Write for free specimen copy. J. Taylor Day was in Louisville Sunday, a guest of the Willard Hotel, and it is probable he will attend court at Mt. Sterling next Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. A. C. Nickell will regret to learn that she is not improving. Indeed, in some respects her condition is a great deal worse.

S. M. Lykins, of Morgan county, was last week appointed deputy warden at the Frankfort penitentiary by the state board of prison commissioners.

Elder John S. Sweeney, of Paris, who will be remembered by many of our citizens, died at his home Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock in the 77th year of his age.

Our friend and fellow-citizen, O. W. Cecil, has the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a beef liver and heart, with which we had a royal repast.

J. Caesar Lindon, a prominent candidate for Circuit Court Clerk, was here yesterday to have some cards printed in the interest of his candidacy, and is warming things up.

The B. K. Literary society of the Academy, rendered their opening program of the year Saturday evening in Pearre Hall. Many said it was the best ever given by this society.

Congressman John W. Langley will speak in behalf of his candidacy for re-election to congress at Hazel Green, Saturday, October 17, 1908, at 7:30 p. m. Ladies and children especially invited. If Judge Davis, the Democratic candidate, is present and desires a division of time, it will be cheerfully granted.

Town Marshal W. B. Johnson, who is also street commissioner, with the assistance of Taylor Ringo, have this week made some much needed improvements on the street in front of this office. For a good part of last winter it was almost impossible to get through the mud at that place because of no drainage. He put in a wooden culvert, ditched the street and so graded the roadbed that for quite a while the road will be good.

Col Jack Ringo, of Menifee county, his daughter, Mrs. Thos. Fallen and two children, of Wilmer, Texas, and his youngest son were guests of Taylor Ringo and wife from Friday until Tuesday, when they left for Menifee county. But before their departure Mrs. Fallen called and renewed her subscription to our paper, so they can get the news of the mountains.

Miss Hazel Ringo, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Elkins, of Winchester, for several weeks, came home Monday, and will remain here for a fortnight with her father and mother, Taylor Ringo and wife. She speaks in glowing terms of the Winchester people, and regrets that circumstances were against a longer stay in that sociable town.

Mrs. Nannie Kash left Friday to visit her brother, Sidney Mapel, at Clay City, and will be joined there by Mrs. John Watts, of New Mexico, a relative of the Mize and Mapel families. Mrs. Watts is a sister of Mrs. James Barnes, who visited W. O. Mize and other relatives here a few weeks ago.

A Mr. Tolson was here yesterday soliciting aid for Monroe Wood, of Stillwater, who had the misfortune a few days since to have his house and all of its contents lost by fire. The amount he realized is unknown but our citizens, to whom he appealed, responded with their usual liberality.

An exchange says: Six months and four days after the birth of her first born, Mrs. F. Edwards has presented her husband with twin daughters. This is a new Omaha record. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were married less than two years ago. The latter is only 18 years old.

Farmers Wanted.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.

Wanted—3,000 practical farmers who would like to own homes of their own. The Government has nearly 200,000 acres of land lying under the various irrigation projects throughout the west for which water will be available next season. The farm unit on these projects varies in most cases from 40 to 60 acres of irrigable land, depending upon location. In many sections a tract of grazing land has been included in the farm unit wherever practicable, bringing the total up to 160 acres.

The only charge for these farms, besides the regular land office fee for filing, is the actual cost of getting water to them, and payment may be made in ten annual installments, without interest.

These irrigation projects are scattered over the entire arid region, from Canada to the Mexican line. In consequence, every variety of crop grown in the temperate zone can be raised on them. If you want a fruit or dairy farm, a garden for market truck, a tract for diversified farming, hog or poultry raising, just write to the Statisticians of the U. S. Reclamation Service, Washington, D. C. for particulars.

Easy to Mix This.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of bright's disease: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic affliction with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acid and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

The Maternal Instinct.

Writing of suicides, Mary E. Bryan, in Uncle Remus's—The Home Magazine for October, declares that it is a fact that suicide among women is far less frequent than among men. "I believe the reason is probably due to the maternal instinct," she says. "Whether consciously or unconsciously, the instinct of motherhood—even with those who are not mothers—influences women to self-preservation. This may come to be otherwise in the day foretold by some Sociologists, when the maternal instinct shall have died out, the race being recruited by a chosen few whose offspring the State takes in charge. Should such a condition ever come to pass, it would be when civilization had grown to be mechanical.

Misses Mae Williams, Lillian Bicknell, Katherine Cecil and Ora A. Campbell paid our office a call Tuesday afternoon and spent a few pleasant moments in watching our handsome young compositor, Emin Elam, manipulating type in the "art preservative" and in viewing Mr. Habicht's art gallery. They were so pleasant and ladylike that we herewith extend them a cordial and standing invitation to call as often as they will. Visits from ladies of such innocence and virtue are ennobling and encouraging. May God bless and protect them.

MURPHY PORK MINUTES.

D. W. Vest, of Bonny, visited the family of Ben Murphy for the past week.

Milt Lykins, of Camargo, was in this section for the past week buying cattle.

Ben Murphy, wife and little son, Charlie, visited Hiram Patrick, of Ezel, Sunday.

Miss Cora Murphy is on the sick list at this writing. Dr. Curt Geydon is attending her.

Gilbert Ratliffe and family moved Friday to their new farm on Blackwater which they lately purchased.

Misses Ura and Golden Murphy, Nora, Zelpha and Maggie Pieratt attended the big meeting at Grassy lick Sunday. All report a good time.

Miss Jennie Creekbaum eloped with Garfield Walters last Wednesday evening and was married that night at Alex Shockey's, Rev. James Dyer officiating.

A. C. Creekbaum, of this place, died Saturday evening of pneumonia and was buried Sunday evening at Ezel. He leaves a wife and three children and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

If not, then make up your mind and write me for descriptive list of farms in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. All fine, level, productive land that will grow anything under the sun, at prices ranging from $15 to $40 an acre and come where life is made tolerable by easy, profitable farming. Why sweat and fret life away in the vain effort to eke out a mere miserable sustenance from the rock-ribbed, root-laced hillsides as your father and father's father did, when there is so much good land to be had yet awhile for a mere song? Get out of the rut—break away from the time-worn habit that keeps your nose to the grindstone. All it takes is resolution and a little nerve. Write me, and let me help you to a better condition.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

To relieve the congested condition in the house of reform at Lexington, the prison commissioners will erect a hospital, a chapel and school building.

Upper Blue Lick Springs, at Davidson, the bones of a large mastodon deer and buffalo have been unearthed at a depth of 18 feet. The bones are of enormous size and will be preserved.

Even in Kentucky "Royalty" has its weddings. Only last week at Bohon, in Mercer county, Rev. Horace Kingsbury pronounced the words which made Henry Royalty and Miss Sarah Royalty man and wife.

Bob Vearn, a negro miner, fell backward from the porch of residence while asleep, at Bosworth, in Bell county, and broke his neck. He was given an X-ray examination and physicians believe they can save his life.

The store of A. J. Brown & Co., of Paintsville, was destroyed by fire, making a loss of between $6,000 and $8,000, partly covered by insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown, but circumstances point to incendiary origin.

At a meeting of the members of the First Presbyterian church at Frankfort, recently, $29,000 were raised in 29 minutes for the building of a new church edifice. It is expected that the $50,000 required for the purpose will be raised with ease.

Bob Woodard, the young man who was shot by his brother-in-law, John Phelps, a short time ago in Frenchburg, died from the effects of the wound last Thursday. After the shooting Phelps turned the pistol on himself and sent a bullet crashing through his brain.

A large stock barn belonging to I. M. Chappel, a prominent citizen of McMurtin's landing, in Monroe county, was destroyed by fire, together with nine head of horses and mules, farming implements and feed. The loss was $8,000, with no insurance. The fire was of incendiary origin.

But for a timely downpour of rain last week, Ruddle's Mills, in Bourbon county, would have been wiped from the map by fire. As it was two stores and a dwelling were destroyed. The extreme drought had nearly exhausted the water supply, but the rain came and checked the flames.

Thieves went to the home of Mrs. N. I. Buster, on the Danville and Harrodsburg pike, robbed a number of bee hives and then set them on fire. The hives were in the yard and near the residence and it was with difficulty that the flames were prevented from reaching the house.

While climbing a fence carrying a double-barreled shotgun Richard Newman, aged 18 years, of Jefferson county, accidentally discharged the weapon, tearing off both his legs, the charge having entered just below the knees. The boy lay helpless by the fence several hours before he was found.

Tottering from old age and his hair snowy white, E. Burns, aged 81 years, was taken to Frankfort penitentiary last week from Boyle county to serve four years. He worked a green goods game on a farmer, securing $2,000, all he had in bank. He is the oldest man ever admitted to the prison.

Ira Phillips was shot and probably fatally wounded in a saloon at Frankfort by Charles Kelly. Kelly asserts that Phillips and a party of his friends came at him with knives, saying that they were "night riders." He says he didn't take any chances, so began firing, laying Phillips out at the first volley.

George Kerr, a farmer west of Owingsville, noticed a small fire in his field. The fire spread rapidly and fifty acres of grass and about one hundred panels of fencing were burned. For a time residences, barns and other outbuildings seemed doomed, but by heroic efforts of twenty-five the fire was extinguished.

A large forest in Bath county, extending from Slate creek to Licking river, was burning furiously last week. The residence of Clarence Crouch was burned. His wife wrapped herself in a quilt and ran through the flames, but was seriously burned. Other houses were in danger and the occupants deserted them.

The cases against Alex Hargis, Elbert Hargis, Ed Callahan and Jesse Spicer, charged with complicity in the assassination of James Cockrill and J. B. Marcum, at Jackson, pending in the Fayette Circuit court for the past two years, were stricken from the docket, Commonwealth's Attorney John R. Allen stating to the court that no convictions could be secured.

The state fire marshal and his assistants, after a careful investigation, claim they have discovered that a house in Exall county, the property of N. T. Taylor, of Winchester, was burned by Jack Hawkins, of Estill county, who confessed that he was hired to do it by James Lane, of Richmond, who wanted to collect $300 insurance money on the house, in which he had been permitted to live by Taylor. Both Hawkins and Lane have been arrested.

A Healthy Family.

"Our whole family has enjoyed good health since we began using Dr. King's New Life Pills, three years ago," says L. A. Bartlett, of Rural Route 1, Guilford, Maine. They cleanse and tone the system in a gentle way that does you good. 25c at all dealers.

W. Bryant, and seconded by Walter Oliver, were unanimously adopted by the said committee.

Resolved, 1st—That a Primary Election shall be held in each of the nine precincts of Wolfe county, Kentucky, on the 14th day of November, 1908, between the hours of 6 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., the polls therefore to be opened at the regular voting place in each of said precincts, for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for each of the county offices to be voted for at the regular election to be held in November, 1909, the candidates to be selected being a candidate each for the following named offices: County Judge, Sheriff, Superintendent of Schools, County Court Clerk, Circuit Court Clerk, County Attorney, Assessor, Jailor, Coroner and Surveyor.

2nd—That all Democrats of the county who will be eligible to election for the respective offices to which they aspire at the regular November, 1909, election, and who shall conform to the requirements, rules and regulations of this Primary Call, as herein set out, shall be eligible to, and may be voted for, as candidates before the said Primary for the nomination as a candidate for such of said offices as they may make known their desires to be a candidate for, in the manner hereinafter prescribed; provided, however, that no one man shall be a candidate for more than one of the said offices hereinafter named.

3rd—Any person or persons desiring to become a candidate for nomination for any of the offices before named herein, shall, on or before the 30th day of October, 1908, said last named date being just fifteen days before the time set herein on which said Primary Election is to be held, make known to this committee the office for which he desires to become a candidate, by so notifying the chairman of this committee, either orally or in writing, of the office for which he desires to be a candidate before said Primary, and if he desires to be a candidate for any one of the first named eight offices herein he shall pay to the said chairman of this committee and take his receipt therefor, the sum of $5.00, or if he desires to be a candidate for the office either of Coroner or Surveyor, he shall likewise make known his intention and pay to said chairman the sum of $2.50, said amount so paid to be used in defraying the expenses of this Primary Election. Except that, if the chairman of the said committee is absent from the county or state, or cannot be found, then the secretary of said committee shall be notified in the manner hereinbefore indicated for the notification of the chairman and the same funds shall be paid to him and for the same purpose as hereinbefore required to be paid to the chairman. Those who are first to register shall have their names placed first on the ballots to be voted for for the respective offices for which they are candidates, and so on, having preference for places on the ballots in the order in which they register for the office for which they are to run—that is to say, whoever registers first for any office shall have his name printed first on the ballot as a candidate for that said office, and whoever registers last shall likewise have his name printed last as a candidate for said office, and so on through. Any one so notifying this committee and thus becoming a candidate shall be bound by all the rules, regulations and requirements of the Democratic party and the law of this state governing primary elections. And any person who shall have paid to the committee as hereinbefore mentioned his registry fee, shall not be entitled to recover any of same from the said committee, by action or otherwise, even though after depositing same he should withdraw from the primary and have his name withdrawn; and whatever amount, if any, of funds remaining in the hands of this committee, after the expenses of the primary election have been paid, shall be used by the said committee to defray the expenses (lawful) of the party in effecting proper party organization over the county; and in case a sufficient amount of money is not paid to the committee to pay the expenses of the primary in the way above designated, then those candidates who shall have been declared the nominees for the respective offices in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, shall pay to said committee whatever balance of said primary expenses remain unpaid, ratably and in proportion to the amount required herein to be first paid by the candidates for the respective offices.

4th—All persons shall be allowed a vote for a candidate each for the various county offices who are at the time legal electors in the precinct where they apply for the privilege to vote, and who are known by the respective primary election boards to be Democrats, or who will make oath that they did not vote for any Republican candidate before the people to be voted for at the regular November election, 1909, provided they conform to the conditions and qualifications prescribed by the committee having control of said primary; and provided further, that all male citizens of this county and state otherwise entitled to vote but who are not yet 21 years of age and who will be at least 21 years of age at the time of holding the regular election in 1909 (November), shall be entitled to vote in this election; and provided further, that all persons desiring to vote in this Primary Election shall, if requested to do so by either of the judges of said election for the respective precincts, be required to make affidavit that they will support all persons nominated for the various offices by said primary.

5th—This committee shall meet again at the court house in the town of Campton, Wolfe county, Ky., in the county assessor's office, if available, otherwise in some other room of said court house, on the 4th day of November, 1908, at which the committee shall declare who are candidates to be voted for at the said primary election, and shall at the same time and place make provision for having the ballots for the various precincts throughout the county printed and distributed, and shall at the same time and place and in the manner prescribed by law elect and appoint the various officers of the county, that may be appointed at that time, to-wit: Two judges, a sheriff and a clerk for each precinct of the county.

6th—Within two days after the said primary election shall have been held and conducted as herein provided, the election officers of the various precincts, after having performed the other duties of their respective offices required and enjoined upon them by law, deliver to the chairman of this committee the ballot box and the poll books, certificates and the envelope containing the spoiled, mutilated and questioned ballots, and the keys to the ballot box, together with the election seal, and the officers delivering same shall do so in the manner prescribed by law, and the officer receiving same shall receive same in the manner prescribed by law, at the court house in the town of Campton. On the third day after the holding of said election as herein prescribed, this committee shall again meet in the town of Campton in some convenient room or office, and shall then and there count the votes received by all candidates in such primary election and shall declare the candidates receiving the highest number of votes the nominees for the respective offices for which they were voted for in said primary election. The said committee shall have the power and authority to declare the nominee in case of a tie vote between any two candidates for any of said offices, as well as any and all contests arising from said primary election.

7th—Notice of this primary election call shall be given by this committee at least forty days prior to the date of holding said election by the chairman, or secretary, or chairman and secretary thereof, posting said notice at the court house door and at least twenty other public places in the county of Wolfe.
